

The Elizabeth House

A Safe Place To Make A Change

Knowing that you are making the right choice is difficult at times because life can be hard.

Choices you made in the past maybe have not been the best. You wish you would have stayed in school, not gotten mixed up with those friends, not let your temper cause you to lose that job, or stayed away from that guy.

Choices were made;
the best you could do at the time,
now you're pregnant and feeling alone...
